

Dark Ages (AD400 – AD 800)

8. Why did they call it the Dark Ages?

Middle Ages (AD 800 – AD 1400)

9. What killed 75% of the population in Europe and Asia? _____
Do you recall learning another name for that disease, what caused it, and how it was transmitted?

Renaissance (AD 1350 – AD 1650)

10. What led to a better understanding of anatomy and physiology during this historical period, and why was that important?

16th, 17th, and 18th Century

11. What invention led to doctors being able to see disease-causing organisms for the first time?
12. What did Edward Jenner do?

19th Century

13. What is infection control, and have you practiced any infection control today?

20th Century

14. What did we learn about blood in the 20th century?
15. What 20th century discovery in medicine do you think was the most important? Why?
16. What 20th century medical discovery are you most hopeful to see by the year 2010?